W. P. WALTON.

SPEAKER REED, who had so far ruled the House in a despotic manner, with nothing to disturb his own sweet will, got his first knock-out the other day and the honor of doing it belongs to the Hon. Roger Q. Mills, of Texas. The speaker sought to sneak the free coinage bill, as passed by the Senate, out of the reach of the House by consigning it to a hostile committee he had appointed for the purpose, but Mr. Mills demanded that the journal be read, when the surreptitious work was discovered and against the strong protest of Reed and his lieutenants, corrected. The democrats could not have done it by themselves, but there were a sufficient number of republicans, tired of the acts of the czar, who embraced the opportunity to rebel. Reed, who has been able to accomplish much of his devilment by the superior control he has over himself, completely lost his temper and looked like the whipped cur that he was. It was a big victory for the democrats as well as for the silver men, who were greatly elated over the square and fair knock-down of their opponents.

The Courier-Journal suggests that the Kentucky Press Association take a valuable pointer from the New York State Press Convention and urge the passage of a libel law, "similar to the Minnesota statute, with an amendment prohibiting attorneys from sharing in money obtained in successful suits." At the twentysixth meeting last year a copy of the Minnesota statute, was presented and a bill formulated for presentation to the Kentucky Legislature. A committee was appointed to present it to that body, but if it ever did so it shared the fate of the advertising law. It is a pretty difficult matter to get any bill of importance through our Legislature, except a strong lobby, with plenty of cash, takes it in hand.

The Ohio prohibitionists are determined to "catch 'em a-comin' and a-gwine." They held a State convention last week and in addition to re-affirming their own special dogma, declared for a secret ballot, reduced hours of labor and a more equitable division of profits with labor, for arbitration of all labor differences, a tariff for revenue only, free coinage of silver, service pensions and woman suffrage. The Courier-Journal thinks that it is a pity they failed to say what should be the national flower or settle the question as to the whereabouts of Moses when the light went out.

The woods of that hopelessly republican district, the 11th, are full of candidates to succeed Judge Finley in Congress. We haven't the space to publish the full list of them, but the fact that Finley will be a candidate, and so will Mr. Wilson, now the representative from the 10th district, but hereafter to be confined to the 11th, is enough to insure a warm time. These two gentlemen do not love each other over much and the way they will make the fur fly will be a caution. Hurrah for Wilson!

Since he has seen on what small pretext, or for that matter no pretext at all, the republican House is kicking out democratic members and giving their seats to members of their party, who were snowed under at the polls, some by more than 10,000 majority, the Little Red Hog is said to be kicking himself daily because he did no contest for McCree's seat. He might now have been a $5,000-a-year Congressman, instead of a second-class census supervisor at $1,000 a year, if he had.

The Barbourville News says there is a desire on the part of its best citizens to have Judge J. H. Tinsley become a candidate for clerk of the Court of Appeals. The judge is a republican, but a monstrous clever man, besides being a thoroughly capable one. He is very popular too wherever he is known and could come about as near giving Mr. Longmire a race as any man in his party.

Mr. F. D. SPOTSWOOD, of the Harrodsburg Democrat, sees all the souvenir editions and goes them one better. His 24 page issue of the 20th, beautifully printed and profusely illustrated, is a thing of beauty and a joy forever to the lovers of the art preservative. Besides it is of inestimable value to its town and county, as it sets forth in a pleasing manner its varied resources and advantages.

MANY of our exchanges are making favorable comment on the candidacy of Hon. K. C. Warren for State auditor, which we appreciate fully as highly as he could possibly do. We will reproduce a number of the notices in our next and continue them as may be necessary.

UNITED in life and in death they were not divided—Mr. and Mrs. Potts, who were hung together on the same scaffold at Elko, Nev., Friday, for the murder of an old peddler, whom they also robbed.

HARRISON is said to have declared that he will not be a candidate for re-election. He is wise enough to read the handwriting on the wall and give up in place of being kicked out.

A FEW of the leading prohibitionists of the State met at Louisville Friday and decided to engage Dr. John A. Brooks, late candidate for vice-president on their ticket, to accompany Mrs. Josephine Henry, the nominee for appellate clerk, on a stumping tour of the State. At this, of course will take money, which will have to be raised by private contribution. There will not, however, much of a sum go from this county. Our prohibitionists are not built that way. They can talk prohibition and make a great ado, but the mention of money has been known to break up more than one convulsion of the "I am Holier than Thou" crowd.

JUDGE RUSSELL fined Col. John D. Fogle $20 and sent him to jail six hours for contempt in refusing to file the affidavits of certain parties, swearing the judge off the bench in the trial of a case. At the end of the six hours, Col. Fogle signified his willingness to surrender the papers, saying the judge had him in his power for the time being, but he would hear from him in the future. Judging from the many charges that have been brought against Judge Russell, he would stay in jail an indefinite time if the contempt of the public were an offense punishable with imprisonment.

WINCHESTER is in for it this week. The trouble begins Wednesday and for three days and nights she will have the editors from all over the State within her gates. We hope and believe she will have no occasion to regret their coming, but we shudder for Tom Stuart. The secretary has issued to the editors, their wives and ladies a little over 200 passes and the meeting promises to be even more largely attended than last year. Mr. Stuart's drowsy speech of invitation is doing the business and now he is in for it. Poor fellow!

SECRETARY BLAINE is reported in the New York Herald as a strong opponent of the McKinley tariff jungle and as saying: "It is the most dangerous, if not the most infamous, measure that was ever concocted by any party. If I were in the Senate I would rather lose my right arm than to vote for it." As Mr. Blaine has more sense than the majority of his party combined, the fellows who are monkeying as statesmen had better listen to him before they inflict the obnoxious law upon the country.

AFTER being held down for three days Reed and his gang succeeded in getting back on top in the House, his henchmen, who were absent, having responded to his appeals by telegraph, and put in an appearance, thereby giving him a majority ready and willing to do his bidding. It was after their arrival and not till then, that Reed was able to refer the free coinage bill to his stockaded committee and then he had to do it by the prescribed method and not by stealth, as he originally tried.

JOHN D. WHITE threatens to run for appellate clerk as an "un-nominated republican" and professes to believe that he will win. If such is really his belief we are satisfied that he is sadly mistaken. The colonel is an erratic genius, albeit a most clever gentleman, but if he makes the race he will find to his sorrow that he is very decidedly a lack number.

The original package decision is causing great confusion in Iowa. Judges, like doctors, differ, no two construing it alike, and frequently in the same case entirely different decisions are rendered. Those who want a drink, however, find it all the same and get roaring drunk, while the lawyers and judges are fighting over the law.

Gov. MCCREARY took a prominent part in the proceedings in Congress last week, which gave Bulldozer Reed such a black-eye. The governor is one of the finest parliamentarians in the country and his word on any question touching the law governing legislative bodies is taken at par in Congress and elsewhere.

The democrats of the 6th district elected Senator Dickerson Saturday by a small majority. The vote was very light. Hardin carried Newport, but the county went pretty solidly for Dickerson.

NEWS CONDENSED

—D. W. Jones has been appointed post-master at Red Ash, Whitley county.

—Henry Clay, Jr., aged 92, and the father of a large family, is dead in Bourbon.

—Post-offices have been established at Ashbrook, Anderson county, and Braxton, Mercer county.

—A homing pigeon turned loose at St. Louis at 6:10 reached Cincinnati at 3:10. The distance is 302 miles.

—The president has appointed Judge Wm. Lindsay one of the commissioners at-large to the World's Fair.

—Uncle Billy Miller, said to be 105 years of age, died in Pulaski last week. He fought in the war of 1812.

—John B. Davis, ex-chief engineer of the Confederacy at Richmond, died at Jeffersonville, Ind., aged 72 years.

—A mob took Ned Haskins, charged with attempted rape, from the jail in Lunenburg county, Va., and castrated him.

—A company of New York and Eastern capitalists have secured options on 1,200 acres of land at Shakertown, Mercer county, for $50,000 and intend to open stone quarries and a huge summer resort.

—The disappearance of the peak of Mt. Shasta, the noted California mountain, is the subject of much wonder and discussion.

—A cyclone swept over a portion of Illinois, Friday, doing incalculable damage and killing 15 people at Earlville and 17 at Pawpaw.

—Haggin, the owner of Salvator, is said to have won on the race $65,000 in bets in addition to the $12,000 that the horse won.

—The committee has favorably reported the bill to pay Gen. T. T. Garrard $13,750.00 for his salt works destroyed by the Federal army.

—The entombed miners in Dunbar have not yet been reached. There is very little hope that anything save Gabriel's trumpet can revive them.

—Powell Crosley has secured a perpetual lease on Pike's Opera House building, Cincinnati, at an annual rental of $20,500, with the privilege of purchase at $500,000.

—The law prohibiting pool-rooms was repealed by the city council at Covington and three rooms at that place were opened on licenses of $1,000 each per year.

—The Franklin Favorite announces by authority the Hon. John S. Rhea for attorney general. Senator John K. Hendrick, of Livingston county, is also announced.

—The State meeting of the wheelmen will be held at Richmond, July 12, when a grand bicycle tournament will be given, at which 20 valuable prizes will be awarded.

—Sir James Miller, the owner of Saintfoin, won $14,000 over the Derby, so that including his share of the stake, he is nearly $9,000 to the good after allowing for the price of Saintfoin.

—The firm of D. Shanahan & Co., which is composed of the father and two sons, C. M. and D. A. Shanahan, large railroad contractors, have been awarded the contract for the big "Back-lancho" tunnel through the Rockies in Colorado. It is to cost $1,000,000.

—Milton H. Smith, vice-president of the Louisville & Nashville road, was made a flattering offer by the Richmond & West Point Terminal people to go to Richmond, Va., and take charge of their property. Although the salary offered was a large one, he refused to accept.

—The driving rod of an engine on an express train on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad broke near Child's Station, Pa., causing a wreck in which several persons were killed. Bishop Keane, of the Catholic University at Washington, and a son of Senator Ingalls were among the dozen people who were injured.

—Supervisor Spencer states that the population of Louisville is 180,000 in round numbers, which is an increase of over 44 per cent. in 10 years. The supervisor at Cincinnati gives her 200,000, which is an increase of only 17 per cent. The returns show that New York City proper has 1,627,227, Philadelphia 1,040,049 and Boston 417,720.

—The Court of Appeals has again reversed the decision in the case of John W. Coppage vs. the L. & N. for the killing of his son while attempting to board a moving train in Marion county. The lower court gave the father damages, but the higher court held that the deceased left no widow or child and the action under the statute could not be maintained. The last legislature tried to change this statute, but it failed to do so.

—The project to erect colossal equestrian statues to Gen. Grant and Lee, on Pinnacle Mountain, Cumberland Gap, is assuming definite shape. About $20,000 has already been subscribed, and offers to assist have been received from prominent men all over the country. One of the statues is to face North, the other South, and the foundation is to rest in the triangles formed by the boundary line of three States—Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia. The plan originated with the patriotic and enterprising people of Middleboro.—C. J.

—Friday was a pretty good day for the hangman. Josiah Potts and his wife were strung up on the same scaffold at Elko, Nev., for murder. Mrs. Potts' last words were "God help me, I am innocent," to which the old man responded, "God knows we are both innocent." Another innocent man, according to his story, was hung at Belleville, Ont. His last words were also, "I am innocent, so help me God." Fritz Dubois, at Quebec, alone acknowledged his crime, the murder of his wife, and prayed that he might meet her in heaven.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could only live a short time. She weighed less than 70 pounds. On a piece of wrapper paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle. It helped her, she bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and now is strong, healthy, rosy plump, weighing 150 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful discovery free at A. R. Penny's Drugstore.

REWARD—A gentleman dropped $15 Sunday, a $10 and a $5 bill, for which he will pay a liberal reward if brought to this office.

THE Williamsburg Times says that Dr. W. M. Blain was stunned by a bolt of lightning and remained unconscious for 15 minutes or more.

THE crew that shot at Section Boss Cummings on the Corbin Branch, after he had opened the fire, has been suspended, pending an investigation by the railroad authorities.

DEATH.—A little daughter of Mr. W. O. Watts, of Boyle, died Saturday while on a visit to the family of James Ranbo, near Highland. She had inflammatory rheumatism and typhoid fever.

FOR CASH.—On and after July 1 we will do a strictly cash business and those persons owing us accounts are earnestly requested to settle them at the earliest possible date. Combest & Allen, Ivesmen, Hustonville.

THE superintendent of the Knoxville Division, Mr. P. T. Downs, says that there is no foundation for the report that the firemen were getting ready to strike. He is not aware that there is even a grievance.

SIX persons living in Stanford have reported to us that the enumerators have skipped them, but as the work is not complete yet we will wait for a time with patience before we say that the men are not doing their duty.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.—On account of the 4th of July the Queen & Crescent Route will sell excursion tickets between all stations at one fare for the round trip; tickets on sale July 3 & 4, good for return until July 7th, inclusive.

THERE will be an auction sale of lots in the new addition to Nicholasville, known as Duncan Heights, July 5th. Nicholasville offers superior advantages both as a place of residence and for business and manufacturing and investors should investigate. See notice in this issue.

BARBOURVILLE is elated over the fact that oil was struck at a depth of 610 feet by the Land & Improvement Company boring an artesian well. The expert driller has pronounced it to be as good as any found in Pennsylvania, and the only place he has found the oil-bearing sandstone outside of Pennsylvania.

THE sulphur well in the rear of Mr. M. D. Elmore's store has gotten to be the most popular place in town. The water is delightfully cool and invigorating and all who drink it claim that they are benefited. Mr. Elmore very cleverly supplies all who come, but unless he puts some charge on it, we fear his good nature will be overtaxed.

THE L. & N. continues the war with the Knoxville, Cumberland Gap & Louisville railroad by tearing up all switch connections with it and belt roads at Middleboro. The Court of Appeals gave the latter road the right to use the embankment approaching the tunnel at the north portal, and are thereby enabled to build into the Magic City.

THE hop at Hale's Well Friday night was attended by a large crowd, which enjoyed itself till a late hour. About a dozen couples went from town and all report a huge time. The supper was a splendid one, doing full justice to Mrs. Spoonamore's acknowledged culinary ability. Salter's orchestra, which had been playing all the season for Prof. Carson's class, was able to furnish good music and to keep it up till the last couple reluctantly left.

THE Stanford Female College, whose announcement appears in this issue, will open September 1, with a splendid faculty, engaged by President J. M. Hubbard with special reference to its ability and aptness in teaching the schools to which each is assigned. Prof. Hubbard is determined to make the school second to none in the State and if its natural patrons will do their duty an institution will be built up that will be the pride of the whole section. This office is now engaged in getting out his catalogue, which will be a very neat and comprehensive one.

COLLISION.—There was a fearful wreck of freight trains on the Cincinnati Southern Saturday afternoon, near McKinney. The local going North left the latter place to pass the through freight at Moreland and the through freight expected to pass the local at McKinney. Both were wrong in their calculations for they met under full headway on a curve on the old Barton place with terrible effect. Like fighting horses the engines reared up in their effort to demolish each other and stood on their stern ends, while the cars piled in shapeless confusion over them. Strange to say none of the trainmen were hurt, though they made some very narrow escapes.

WILL DUNN was arrested by Marshal Newland for larceny Saturday and was placed in the hands of a guard till yesterday, but he had not been returned at last accounts.

TO TEACHERS.—Miss Kate Bogle, superintendent of common schools, requests us to say that as the first Friday in July falls on the 4th, a legal holiday, she will hold the first examination of white teachers on Saturday, July 5th.

BELIEVING that it will be advantageous to the purchaser as well as ourselves, we will begin on July 1 to sell exclusively for cash. Persons indebted to us will please come forward and settle their accounts. Weatherford & Cook, Hustonville, Ky.

W. R. CROSS, ex-editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal and an experienced teacher, has accepted the principalship of the Waynesburg Seminary, the fall term of which will begin next month. We hope and believe the arrangement will be mutually satisfactory.

A DISSENT says that George D. Bedlow, an old citizen of Danville, died there Saturday night of consumption. He was born in Lincoln county in 1848. He was at one time quite prominent in political circles, and made a race for the Legislature on the republican ticket.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is arranging for a week's tour, to begin July 7th. They will get their nine together, which was so invincible last season, and play Winchester, Mt. Sterling, Paris, Lexington and other cities, confident that they can do up any amateur nine that dares cross bats with them.

THERE came near being a street fight yesterday between a clothing merchant and a retired capitalist. The matter began in play, but ended as such things usually do, when the language and handling got too rough. Friends interposed and both men were heartily ashamed of themselves a minute afterwards.

WE do not intend to be profane, but we are forced to remark that Sunday was the most infernally hot day we ever experienced. The mercury registered 96° in the shade and the Lord himself knows how high it was in the sun. There was a little more breeze yesterday, but still hot enough to bake a salamander.

OWING to certain financial arrangements made by the board for numerous permanent improvements of the College buildings, the lease of Prof. Hubbard has been extended two years, making it seven years or five more before it expires. A verandah is to be placed on the chapel end of the building and other needed additions made.

THERE are already a few guests at Crab Orchard Springs, but the regular opening will not occur till the 1st. Mr. Sam Holman was here yesterday and said he would go on the road the first of next week. The report that Mr. J. C. King would not be with the company this year is, we are glad to know, untrue. D. B. Edmonson will be head clerk and Miss Annie M. Langdon will be general manager.

THE Advocate blew a little in its last issue because a Centre College nine came up here and waxed what it called the Lexington Journal 24 to 4. The fact of the business is there were only three of the regular 1. J. in the nine, the rest being picked up without regard to their ability to play, in order not to disappoint the visitors who had come on short notice.

THE alumni meeting at Stanford Female College, Saturday, was quite largely attended and much enjoyed. The organization of an alumni association was effected and officers elected as follows: President, Mrs. Forester Reed; 1st vice-president, Mrs. W. H. Higgins; 2d vice-president, Miss Mary Aborn, and secretary and treasurer, Miss Florence Estes. The object of the organization is to bring the graduates closer together for the purpose of social and intellectual pleasures. An entertainment and a banquet are on the programme.

THE race for magistrate in the Crab Orchard precinct is growing red-hot. There are 13 contestants for the office, including the great Fontaine Fox Holbitt, whose ambition seems to be on the sliding scale, Jordan Peter Chandler, J. A. Chappell, H. B. Farris, W. A. Carson, and so on. They had a big speaking Saturday night, when personalities took the place of argument and charges and counter charges passed for oratory. Jordan Peter states it as an absolute fact that two of the candidates, whose names are withheld, can neither read nor write.

A WARNING.—Andy Yates and Henry Logan were jailed Sunday, the former for drunkenness and the latter for being drunk and disorderly. Before Judge Carson yesterday each was fined $5. They both swore that they got their whisky at bar-rooms Sunday. We have heard frequent complaints that at least two of the bar-rooms are virtually open all day Sunday. This is in direct violation of both the State and town laws, the latter providing that licenses shall be forfeited when it is shown that the holders sell on Sunday. The failure of saloon men to observe the law is one of the principal reasons that their business is regarded in such an odious light by many. A word to the wise is sufficient. Our town authorities have the hint. Let them keep their eyes skinned and declare every license forfeited in which any of the conditions are violated.

AUCTION SALE

DESIRABLE LOTS

At Nicholasville, Ky.

In the new Addition to the City known as Duncan Heights.

On Tuesday, July 8, 1890,

Commencing at 10 a. m.

The Nicholasville Contract and Investment Co. have purchased the beautiful farm of Mr. Robert Duncan, on the edge of Nicholasville, bordering on two railroads and two turnpikes, and the best engineers have laid it out into streets, avenues and squares. Within this addition may be found lovely hills and dales, wooded parks and grassy lawns, springs of clear water and beautiful lakes, which when completed, will be admirably adapted for fishing and rowing, as well as for furnishing water for manure and other purposes. No more delightful sites for residences can be found anywhere in Kentucky.

Excellent graded school—seven teachers—free to all in the year.

Nicholasville has no city indebtedness, taxes very low, not a vacant house. Roads are high and houses in demand—the city is growing rapidly and the past has demonstrated that large profits will be made by investing in Nicholasville property. Remember the day, Tuesday, July 8.

Terms of Sale.—One third cash, balance in one and two years, with 6 per cent interest from date. By order of the Nicholasville Contract and Investment Co. J. S. BONAUGH, Pres.
